

Project Dashboard Overview

This image represents a project dashboard from PwC M&A Path. It displays an overview of all projects, including their names, engagement leads, and other relevant information. Each card represents a single project, and users can navigate through using the search filters or create new projects.